

That's all I needed.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Crosby. Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Mr. President, members of the body. Senator Kristensen, I don't even know for sure what the question is I want to ask, but I know that we, too, have had communication from constituents that...about that certificate of title, and I believe it was in dealing with that certificate of title from California. I don't remember the details right now. But I think this would absolutely solve the problem for that constituent, but my...I guess my question is, we were told at the time by DMV that they were different, and they couldn't accept them. Now, is...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Oh, far be it for me to criticize DMV.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: (Laughter.) Maybe they just...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: They were, quite frankly...there's a nice term, I'm not going to use it, but that's a...that was just a wrong interpretation and, quite frankly, they were looking at the statutes, and if the statute doesn't say that, we're not going to do it. It's...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: So...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: It's unfortunate we've got to run a bill like this, but that's what needs to get done, and there are a lot of people with salvage certificates out there that have a very valid thing to do. This takes care of them, and DMV will go away.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: So apparently...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Fortunately, not forever.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: So apparently...no, DMV won't go away, but...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: They do fine work. Don't...I don't mean to...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I know, but apparently this is a...not an uncommon problem. I mean, Senator Crosby has had contact on it,
